Jamie Merida

As our lead lighting designer, Jamie brings a unique perspective shaped by his diverse experiences. His designs are deeply influenced by his background as a classical pianist, his expertise in fine art, and his time spent traveling—especially in his second home in France.

Above all, Jamie's creations reflect his deep understanding of what customers truly want, honed through years of success with his Maryland-based home furnishings store and thriving interior design business.

His mastery of the home furnishings industry and timeless design aesthetic are seamlessly woven into this collection, offering a perfect balance of elegance and functionality.
